Level 7 Response Transcript

Now, since you are the, um, first time to do the interview with the company, um, you should be, uh, prepare yourself in advance. So I will give you several, um, uh, advice for you to, uh, prepare.

First of all, you need to understand this company very well. Uh, since this is, uh, software development country, you should understand the history, background, uh, what type of business, uh, this company do. Uh, and then prepare yourself. Just, uh, think of, uh, what kind of question the company the interviewer of the company will ask you. And the most important things, uh, when you attend the interview is to present on time so you can have, uh, you can have a lot of time that to, um, calm yourself down and when you talk to the interviewer, uh, speak clearly.

Second, in the second place, when you answer the questions, be honest.

This is the, uh, third, uh, step, uh, place. And, uh, politely answer questions. I think the company, uh, very, will be very appreciate that you ask questions about a jobs, or the questions [audio cuts off]
